

Zheng Qiong (Cherelle Zheng) Producer & Director (based in Beijing)

Email:cherelle@vip.sina.com Mobile: +86 -13701189047

Cherelle Zheng (Zheng Qiong) founded "Beijing Channel Zero Media" in 2000. In addition to operating own workshops, film screenings, an e-journal and a fund for the promotion of Chinese filmmakers, Channel Zero Media concentrates on international co-operations and distribution. In 2009 Cherelle Zheng launched the first officially authorized independent Chinese documentary film festival, "iDOCS". She was jury member of DOK Leipzig 2011, Adelaide Film Festival 2013 and DOCAviv film festival 2015. Zheng Qiong has started working with the international documentary filmmaking crew from Taiwan, Canada, Netherlands and France since 2006 and also participated in producing international documentary films, such as The Journey to West (France/2014), A Diary of Pigeon (Netherlands /2014), The Chinese Bubble (Netherlands/2011), Sunny Side of Sex (Netherlands/2010), Rainmakers (Netherlands/2009), How Long is the Road (Taiwan/2008), Short & Male (Canada/2007), Tales of A Yellow Bicycle (Canada/2007)

Filmography:

2012_2016: The Psychiatric Hospital's 'Educated Youth Division' (in production)
(90' documentary, 2010-2016 as director & producer)

2009-2016: A Way Out (90' documentary (director & producer)

The Journey to West ((60' ARTE documentary, 2014 researcher & producer in China)

A Diary of Pigeon (78' VPRO documentary, 2014 researcher & producer in China)

The Folk Troup (68' documentary 2013 producer, Special Jury Award of DOK Leipzig 2013)

The Chinese Bubble (52' VPRO documentary, 2011 researcher & producer in China)

The Sunny Side of Sex (52' X3 documentaries, 2010 co-researcher & producer in China)

Rainmakers (78' documentary 2009 producer in China, 2011 Sheffield Green Award)

Sisters (20 X 45' documentary 2005 producer & distributor)